

ALLEN THORNTON

Founder & CEO, Grant Source

Entrepreneur | Speaker | Author | Philanthropist

Destined to become an entrepreneur, Allen Thornton started his first business at five years old. Later, earning his way through college by bartending at night, selling insurance during the day and importing handbags to sell on campus — Allen cultivated the spirit and grit of a successful entrepreneur.

Since earning his BBA from the University of San Antonio, Allen has sold over $23 Million in enterprise software and has been investing in real estate since 2005.

As the founder of a nonprofit, it was Allen's unfortunate experience with a grant writer that led him to think, there must be a better way. At that moment, the idea for Grant Source was conceived.

“Allen speaks with clarity and authority when it comes to helping businesses get money.” —J.M. Schardien
Executive Director, JMS E-Colors

Grant Source, now backed by Capital Factory, has helped over 700 organizations find and secure over $5.8 million dollars.

Allen is a fierce advocate for social enterprise and is the creator of the new and innovative nationwide “Cause Center” model— a full service program to help businesses add $200,000 to their bottom line while utilizing their facility to serve the community.
